July 5, 2026

Today's "Opening Prayer" reminds us that our Heavenly Father has raised a fallen world through the obedience of Jesus His Son. The words of the prayer also asked that God free us from sin and bestow on us a joy that lasts forever. The Lord Jesus is our hope of finding rest for our souls.

In the Gospel today, we heard Jesus say that His yoke is easy, and His burden is light. When we live our Christian life as a new creation, we think spiritually. When we think spiritually, we are no longer overwhelmed by worldly ways because we are living with faith and hope. While those of a worldly heart seek to accumulate their worldly treasures, those of a spiritual heart give freely of their blessings. While the worldly-minded hold grudges, those of a spiritual mind stand ready to forgive.

In all our daily thoughts, words and actions, let us remember to value the indwelling of the Spirit of God. May we always remember to place God first in our lives and to love our neighbors as ourselves. By doing these things, Jesus instills in our hearts and souls true and lasting peace.

As Americans we celebrate 250 years of our freedoms in these United States. As Catholics Christians, we celebrate almost 2,000 years of the freedom from sin that Jesus brings. There can be no greater blessings on both fronts. God bless America! God bless us all!!

STATUE OF ST. THÉRÈSE OF LISIEUX (also known as St. Therese of the Child Jesus and the "Little Flower of Jesus") is in place in the left transept of the church near the Blessed Mother statue. This statue was donated by Bishop Schlert in loving memory of his deceased parents Alfred and Marylou Schlert. May they rest in peace. Thanks to the Bishop for the addition of this beautiful statue to the Cathedral.

LIFE THOUGHT - As citizens of the USA we cherish many rights and freedoms. The US Catholic Bishops reflect on the responsibilities that accompany these rights in their statement Faithful Citizenship: "The Catholic community is large and diverse. We are members of every race, come from every ethnic background, and live in urban, rural, and suburban communities. But all Catholics are called to a common commitment to protect human life and stand with those who are poor and vulnerable. We are all called to provide a moral leaven for our democracy, to be salt of the earth."

Cherish and protect our God given rights of "LIFE, liberty and the pursuit of happiness" - in that order!

INDEPENDENCE DAY FUNNIES FROM KIDS:

What did the colonists wear to the Boston Tea Party? Tea-shirts. of course!

What did one American flag say to the other flag? Nothing. It just waved

What do you call an American revolutionary who draws cartoons? A Yankee Doodler

A FOURTH OF JULY REFLECTION: Consider this "Prayer for Our Government (1791)" by Archbishop John Carroll of Baltimore, whose brother Charles Carroll of Carrollton was one of the signatories on the Declaration of Independence:

We pray, O almighty and eternal God, who through Jesus Christ has revealed thy glory to all nations, to preserve the works of your mercy, that your Church, being spread through the whole world, may continue with unchanging faith in the confession of your name.

We pray Thee, who alone are good and holy, to endow with heavenly knowledge, sincere zeal and sanctity of life, our chief bishop, the pope, the vicar of Our Lord Jesus Christ, in the government of his Church; our own bishop, all other bishops, prelates and pastors of the Church; and especially those who are appointed to exercise among us the functions of the holy ministry, and conduct your people into the ways of salvation.

We pray, O God of might, wisdom and justice, through whom authority is rightly administered, laws are enacted, and judgment decreed, assist with your Holy Spirit of counsel and fortitude the president of these United States, that his administration may be conducted in righteousness and be eminently useful to your people over whom he presides; by encouraging due respect for virtue and religion; by a faithful execution of the laws in justice and mercy; and by restraining vice and immorality.

Let the light of your divine wisdom direct the deliberations of Congress, and shine forth in all the proceedings and laws framed for our rule and government, so that they may tend to the preservation of peace, the promotion of national happiness, the increase of industry, sobriety and useful knowledge; and may perpetuate to us the blessing of equal liberty.

We pray for his excellency, the governor of this state, for the members of the assembly, for all judges, magistrates, and other officers who are appointed to guard our political welfare, that they may be enabled, by your powerful protection, to discharge the duties of their respective stations with honesty and ability.

We recommend likewise, to your unbounded mercy, all our brethren and fellow citizens throughout the United States, that they may be blessed in the knowledge and sanctified in the observance of your most holy law; that they may be preserved in union, and in that peace which the world cannot give; and after enjoying the blessings of this life, be admitted to those which are eternal.

Finally, we pray to you, O Lord of mercy, to remember the souls of your servants departed, who are gone before us with the sign of faith and repose in the sleep of peace; the souls of our parents, relatives and friends; of those who, when living, were members of this congregation, and particularly of such as are lately deceased; of all benefactors who, by their donations or legacies to this Church, witnessed their zeal for the decency of divine worship and proved their claim to our grateful and charitable remembrance. To these, O Lord, and to all that rest in Christ, grant, we beseech you, a place of refreshment, light and everlasting peace, through the same Jesus Christ, Our Lord and Savior. Amen.
