August 2, 2026

Today's Gospel begins as Jesus heard of the death of John the Baptist and withdrew to a deserted place by Himself. Jesus enters into retreat mode. However, the people went in search of Him. When they found Him, He performed the miracle of the multiplication of the loaves and fish. Jesus turns His moment of grief into one of centering on the needs of His followers. The faithful experience healing and receive food for their hunger.

Jesus satisfies their hunger with His Word and His Food. Do you see it yet? The Word and the Food… Each time we gather at Mass we join in a liturgy that includes two parts - the Word and the Eucharist. Our spirit is fed with both. At Mass, when we worthily and wholeheartedly participate, it is like going on retreat. We retreat from the world for a time to a sacred place for a sacred purpose.

Mass is our time with the Lord to be fed and nourished. "All who ate were satisfied…" If you ever think you don't get anything out of Mass, perhaps then, you're just not hungry enough.

MISSION COOPERATIVE COLLECTION will be taken on the weekend of August 22 and 23 for the benefit of the Apostles of Jesus Missionaries. The Apostles of Jesus is a Religious Missionary Institute for Priests and Brothers based in Africa. This Order is represented by a number of priests ministering in our diocese. The Order was founded in 1968 in Moroto Uganda, East Africa by two Comboni Missionaries. The Order was founded to evangelize Africa and other parts of the world. This special appeal is for the formation of their seminarians and the care of the elderly and sick members of their Order. Thank you for considering and supporting this appeal. A special envelope for this offering is included in the packets sent to the homes of parishioners.

"Read Between the Wines Women's Book Club" Update

Our book club will be meeting on the 3rd Tuesday of each month beginning August 18 from 5:30 pm - 6:30 pm. at Wegman's, Allentown providing indoor or outdoor seating accommodations, depending on weather. (Time saver for last minute grocery needs too.)

The book read discussion for the Tuesday, August 18 meeting discussion is "The Measure" by Nikki Erlick. The September book read discussion on September 15 will be "The Nightingale" by Kristin Hannah. The Club will continue selecting future books so our members may plan calendars to come every month or come once. Will make every effort to get your favorite book on the list!

Great way to meet women of our Cathedral Parish and hear what is happening. Share ideas. Hope to see you there!

LIFE THOUGHT: From Forming Consciences for Faithful Citizenship, by the US Catholic Bishops: When morally flawed laws already exist, prudential judgment is needed to determine how to do what is possible to restore justice—even if partially or gradually—without ever abandoning a moral commitment to full protection for all human life from conception to natural death (Pope St. John Paul II, Encyclical Evangelium Vitae, no. 73).

Choirs

Our choirs are taking a well-deserved summer break. But we still have an upcoming event.....

August 16th at 2 PM....."Our Lord, Our Mother, Our Country". This concert will feature combined choirs and we will celebrate the 65th anniversary of our Diocese and the 250th birthday of our country.

Our music program at the Cathedral is wonderful, because of the commitment of the musicians who faithfully sing and inspire our parish. We need more people, though - consider joining one of our choirs. Your experience as a singer is not important. There are 2 requirements - carrying a tune and wanting to worship Our Lord with all of your heart.

RECTORY WORK: If you see work trucks around the rectory over the next couple of weeks it is due to the badly needed replacement of rugs in some areas of the rectory This project is being done with funds from the capital improvements offerings. Thank you for your generosity that allows us to complete such needed projects.

COOKS WITH COLLARS: The next version is on the horizon. This feeble attempt by the diocesan clergy to make use our cooking skills and kitchen equipment will go live for viewing and your entertainment on September 1. The "Cathedral rectory chefs" have yet to determine the menu for the shenanigans. The online viewing and donate to vote process will begin soon. Stay tuned and get your supply of antacids ready now! Proceeds will benefit the capital improvements underway in the rectory.
