9TH ANNUAL PRIDE MASS HOMILY
Fr. Alex Santora 14 June 2026

Award show winners make comments that are often self-referential and narcissistic. Not Ali Louis Bourzgui who won a Tony for Best Featured Actor in "The Lost Boys" in which he plays a vampire. "This is dedicated to the beautiful tapestry of immigrant families who make this country really special – may you one day not have to audition for the empathy that should be freely given by this country that benefits from your beauty, for the queer and trans communities who have and always will exist, no matter what people in power try to take away from them." He said much more. But why does someone even have to speak for the progress & inclusion that is gradually being stripped from our country.

What used to be on the extreme fringe of society has found a home at 1600 Pennsylvania Ave. Blacks are inferior to whites, women belong in the home, migrants ruin our country, and LGBTQ people are deviants especially trans individuals. Why is Secretary of Defense Hegseth declaring a war on what he calls "dudes in dresses?" Is he trying to suppress a photo he doesn't want public?

Words matter and these racist, misogynist, xenophobic and homophobic sentiments translate into perverse action. Yesterday was the 10th anniversary of the Pulse massacre in Orlando, Florida, where 49 most gay people were murdered and 57 seriously wounded.

Today at our 9th annual Catholic Pride Mass more than the previous ones, we need to turn back hate with empathy -- the ability to feel for another as Bourzgui rightly modeled. We need to see and hear more of this expressed in relation to the LGBTQ communities in our country and our world.

Pope Francis wrote, "A synodal Church is a Church which listens, which realizes that listening is more than simply hearing. It is a mutual listening in which everyone has something to learn. The faithful people, the college of bishops, the Bishop of Rome: all listening to each other, and all listening to the Holy Spirit, the "Spirit of truth" in order to know what she says to the churches." (continued on p. 7)

JOIN US FOR OUR FAREWELLS TO FR. PHIL

Cardinal Tobin is sending Fr. Phil to Rome for advanced studies. We are happy for him but it is bittersweet for us. We have benefitted from his ministry among us the last eight plus years. He is a good priest and has worked hard to build community especially among the Hispanic community. We invite you to either of the two farewells we will hold for him on Sunday, July 19, 2026, from 11:30 to 1 PM in the OLG School Hall and Sunday, July 26, 2026, from 11-12 at St. Joseph Church Hall. We welcome Fr. Stephen Toth as our new parochial vicar. More on him in the next bulletin.

PLEASE BE GENEROUS IN ANNUAL MISSIONS APPEAL

Each year Cardinal Tobin asks each parish to hold a mission appeal. Ours will be held the weekend of July 11-12. The Little Sisters of St. Francis, Kenya, will speak at all the Masses and the second collection will be given to their missions. Please be generous in this appeal.

SPACE FOR RENT AT ST. JOSEPH RECTORY

St. Joseph Rectory, 61 Monroe St., is for rent to a non-profit along with parking for their patrons. If interested, please contact Fr. Santora.

THANK YOU

To the Hoboken Police Department for their presence at our annual Pride Mass…Maria Zoccoli for hosting our Pride Social after the Mass assisted by Patricia Montenegro and to Bernadette Pehrson for her support…TM Ward Coffee and Jon Newman's art…Rosa Dukic and Mary McCloskey for preparing our 175 Anniversary mailing. Kelsey and Sam Seckler for donating rosary beads for the First Communion children.

2026 MASS INTENTIONS AVAILABLE THIS YEAR

You may reserve your Masses for 2026 by going in person to St. Joseph Rectory or the Parish Center or complete and return the forms on the church tables.

PARISH REGISTRATION

Catholics are free to register and attend any church, but are generally encouraged to register in and support their local, territorial parish where they live. For our parish, registration is threefold: complete a form, attend Mass regularly, and donate via envelopes, financial institution, VENMO or Zelle (the amount you give has no bearing). Once you are a parishioner, you may request a sacrament.

FIRST COMMUNION

We congratulate our First Communion children: Catherine Amelia Barsky, Sofia Luz Bautista, Hunter John Fleming, Mackenzie Reign Adah Foster, Christopher Joseph Grubelich, Rose Brennan Lavin, Antonio Joseph Miranda, Sandra Cecilia Kattelman, Charlotte Grace Pfeifer, Antonia Belen Acevedo Gomez, Isidora Paz Acevedo Gomez. We thank Kelsey and Sam Seckler and Melissa Martinez for teaching and preparing the children.

IRRADIANDO A CRISTO

Hermanos y hermanas,

Una de mis fiestas favoritas de cada año es la de San Juan Bautista, el 24 de junio. Además de ser importante para nuestra comunidad como patrón de Puerto Rico, Juan es un santo que nos recuerda muy directamente la esencia de la vida cristiana: nosotros debemos disminuir y el Señor debe aumentar. Y cuanto más aprendemos a aceptar nuestra pequeñez e insignificancia, más fructíferas y significativas se vuelven nuestras vidas.

He reflexionado mucho sobre esto últimamente, al pensar en el tiempo que he pasado aquí y prepararme para iniciar la siguiente etapa. Lo único que podemos hacer, ya seamos sacerdotes o laicos, es "preparar el camino" para el Señor y guiar a las personas hacia Él, para que pueda realizar su obra salvadora. Ninguno de nosotros es el Mesías; ninguno de nosotros puede "arreglar" a otras personas ni lograr su salvación. A menudo, el acto de mayor amor consiste simplemente en "retirarse de escena" despues de anunciar el evangelio, confiando en que es el Señor quien obra los verdaderos milagros y quien trae la sanación y la transformación auténticas.

Siempre debemos esforzarnos por hacer que nuestras vidas sean lo más transparentes posible, de modo que los demás puedan ver a través de nosotros a su verdadero Mesías. Existe una hermosa oración, escrita originalmente por San John Henry Newman, que suelo rezar después de la Misa —la comparto aquí a la derecha— y en la que pido precisamente esta gracia. Esta vida es una peregrinación, y la gente siempre irá y vendrá a medida que avancemos en el camino. Pero si estamos arraigados en el Señor, siempre podremos caminar con serenidad y ayudar a nuestros hermanos y hermanas en su propio trayecto. Que su amor resplandezca siempre en nosotros, y que nuestras vidas nunca dejen de proclamar su poder y su amor.

En el amor de Cristo,
P. Philip

UNA ORACIÓN

"Amado Señor, ayúdame a esparcir tu fragancia donde quiera que vaya. Inunda mi alma de tu espíritu y vida. Penetra y posee todo mi ser hasta tal punto que toda mi vida solo sea una emanación de la tuya. Brilla a través de mí, y mora en mi de tal manera que todas las almas que entren en contacto conmigo puedan sentir tu presencia en mi alma. Haz que me miren y ya no me vean a mí sino solamente a ti, oh Señor. Quédate conmigo y entonces comenzaré a brillar como brillas Tú; a brillar para servir de luz a los demás a través de mí. La luz, oh Señor, irradiará toda de Ti; no de mí; serás Tú quien ilumine a los demás a través de mí. Permíteme pues alabarte de la manera que más te gusta, brillando para quienes me rodean. Haz que predique sin predicar, no con palabras sino con mi ejemplo, por la fuerza contagiosa, por la influencia de lo que hago, por la evidente plenitud del amor que te tiene mi corazón. Amén." (San John Henry Newman)

ADIOS, P. FELIPE

Habrán dos celebraciones de la partida del P. Felipe. El primero, en OLG, domingo, el 19 de julio, despues de la misa de las 10:30am. El segundo, en San José, domingo el 26 de julio, despues de la misa de las 10am. Invitamos a todos a acompañarnos para despedirse del P. Felipe.

REGISTRACIÓN

Solicitamos a todos los feligreses que se registren y que hagan sus donaciones de manera que nos permita llevar un registro de su asistencia (sobres o Venmo/Zelle). Si desean recibir sacramentos u obtener cartas de padrino, necesitamos saber que son registrados y activos en la parroquia..

Pope Francis placed the church on a trajectory that cannot turn back the clock. For far too long, the Catholic church hardened its teaching on homosexuality which cost countless people their lives and ruined others up until the mid-20th century. Finally gay leaders discovered pride in their lives. That's what we celebrate today. God loves all of us. And because of Francis' bravery, the church is struggling to bring that reality into the life of the church. One by one, Catholic leaders are putting flesh on his teaching.

The latest is Archbishop John Wester of Santa Fe, New Mexico. He engaged with New Ways Ministry and said, "Throughout our dialogue in Racine, I was struck by the urgent need for the church to develop a pastoral approach that compassionately listens to the needs of the people of God today. As a church, I fear we are not drawing near enough to our LGBTQ brothers and sisters; we are not moving forward together on the same journey. This is especially true when it comes to the experiences of our transgender and nonbinary people, many of whom feel we approach them with suspicion and hostility. There is a persistent tendency in our discourse to seek simple, categorical answers for what are, in reality, deeply complex and personal human journeys."

"Indeed, science was given a human face during our dialogues. We heard moving testimonies from a transgender man and the mother of a transgender girl, both describing a profound, innate sense of identity that was manifested as early as 3 years of age. Such accounts suggest that gender identity is not a mere 'choice' or a passing 'phase' but a deeply felt experience of personhood, seemingly rooted in the intricate interplay or biology and neurology. Respect for this innate concept of self that originates in the brain, as part of the body, is essential to recognizing the dignity of each human being.

Today's readings demonstrate the need for the church to move from empathy to compassion. "At the sight of the crowds, Jesus was moved with pity for them." He commissioned the apostles to spread that message so that all would know that the Kingdom of heaven is at hand." What began as a movement directed to one people who were specially chosen and loved by God soon expanded to become inclusive of all people, with the recognition that God's love is limitless and God loves each one best. It is faith that moves us forward and faith that guides our way. We all have the responsibility to participate in the preaching, teaching and healing of Christ.

Here in my hands are 8 postcards sent from someone anonymous from Hartford, CT. Each card says the same thing: June is the month of the Sacred Heart of Jesus. He infers that our Pride Mass insults the Sacred Heart. I believe it is from which all compassion flows. The Sacred Heart is our inspiration.

Francis was not intimidated by the opposition to his papacy especially in the U.S. Like all popes, they build on the legacy of their successors. Francis, like John XXIII, though, was transformational for the church. Leo is still finding his voice and way and shows promise that a synodal church is the way forward.

There will always be Catholics and other critics whose theology is frozen in time failing to see how the Holy Spirit has awakened a movement toward compassion. Celebrating Masses like this one, making our churches gay-friendly, including LGBTQ Catholics in the lives of our parishes is a noble enterprise like the calling of the apostles in today's Gospel. Christ's hands heal our hurts and frees us to be the People of God all are called to be. Archbishop Wester concluded, "We cannot remain asleep while so many LGBTQ people feel that the church is not connecting with them, or worse, failing to listen to them and welcome them. That sentiment must now be translated into concrete action and church renewal as we move forward as a synodal church for all of God's people.
