From Father:

The days of summer provide us with a welcome change of pace. Vacations and time away from our usual responsibilities can help us to rest, reconnect with family and friends, and return to our work refreshed. At the same time, the disruption of our ordinary habits can sometimes have a negative effect on our spiritual lives. Prayer becomes less regular, Sunday Mass can be treated as something to fit into the schedule, and the good resolutions we made earlier in the year begin to fade.

As if to rekindle our devotion, the Church places before us during the month of August an extraordinary procession of saints and feasts. Their lives remind us that holiness is not achieved through one great moment of enthusiasm, but through patient and faithful perseverance.

Among the saints celebrated this month are martyrs who surrendered their lives rather than abandon Christ; founders of religious communities who persevered through opposition and disappointment; popes, kings, priests, religious sisters, and apostles. We celebrate St. Bartholomew, one of the Twelve; St. John Vianney, the humble patron of parish priests; St. Lawrence, the courageous deacon who maintained his joy even in the midst of torture; and St. Maximilian Kolbe and St. Teresa Benedicta of the Cross—Edith Stein—who offered their lives during the horrors of the Second World War.

These saints remind us that it is never too late to begin. St. Augustine spent years searching for happiness in the wrong places, resisting the grace of God and the prayers of his mother, St. Monica. Yet God did not abandon him. Augustine eventually surrendered his life to Christ and became one of the greatest teachers in the history of the Church. His life teaches us that our sins, failures, and wasted years do not have the final word. Grace can still triumph.

Nor is it ever too difficult to begin again. Edith Stein was raised in the Jewish faith, became an atheist in her youth, and later encountered the truth of Christ. She entered the Catholic Church, became a Carmelite nun, and ultimately died as a martyr at Auschwitz. God's grace can enter even the most complicated life and transform it into an offering of love.

The great feasts of August also reveal the goal toward which such perseverance leads. On August 6, we celebrate the Transfiguration of the Lord. For a brief moment, Christ allowed the glory hidden within His humanity to shine before the eyes of Peter, James, and John. His transfigured body is a preview of the glory promised to all who remain united to Him.

Then, on August 15, we celebrate the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary. At the end of her earthly life, Mary was taken body and soul into heavenly glory. Her Assumption is the highest fruit of Christ's Redemption and a consoling assurance of our own hope. What God has accomplished in Mary, He desires ultimately to accomplish in all the faithful: the resurrection and glorification of the body.

Mary is not only the greatest example of Christian perseverance; she is also our Mother and advocate. On August 22, the Church honors her as Queen of Heaven and Earth. She is the Mother of Perpetual Help, always leading us back to her Son. As the Memorare confidently proclaims, no one who has fled to her protection has ever been left unaided.

Perhaps summer has weakened some of our good habits. Perhaps our prayer has become distracted or irregular. Perhaps we have fallen again into an old sin or simply grown tired in our efforts to follow Christ. The saints of August remind us not to become discouraged.

It is never too late to begin, and with the help of God's grace, it is never too difficult to begin again.

Hail, Holy Queen, Mother of Mercy, our life, our sweetness, and our hope!

Oremus pro invicem,
Father O'Donald

The Pope's Intention for August

For evangelization in the city

Let us pray that in large cities often marked by anonymity and loneliness we find new ways to proclaim the Gospel, discovering creative paths to build community.

CELEBRATE THE ASSUMPTION AT SAINT MARY CENTER & VILLA, LANSDALE

The residents of Saint Mary Center & Villa in Lansdale extend an invitation to join them for an outdoor Mass with our own version of the "Blessing of the Sea" celebrating the Vigil of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary on Friday, Aug.14 beginning at 11 a.m. Folding chairs in the shade will be provided (or bring your own beach chair) and refreshments will be served following Mass. All are welcome to attend.

Saint Mary Center for Rehabilitation & Healthcare and Saint Mary Villa,
701 Lansdale Avenue, Lansdale, PA 19446.

The custom of "blessing the sea" on the Feast of the Assumption is said to have originated in Italy in the 15th century when a bishop traveling from Venice during a storm at sea on the Feast of the Assumption prayed and threw his pastoral ring into the sea from a ship and the waters were calmed. Some ceremonies today include throwing a ring or wreath of flowers from a boat into the water, symbolizing the union of the earth and the sea and giving rise to the name, "wedding of the sea."
