Pastor's Page

When we gather to celebrate the Sabbath each Sunday, we know where we will find God. We can hear him in the Word proclaimed, we receive Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament, we encounter him in each other as the People of God, coming together in Sacred assembly. The readings today will challenge us to find God in other plaives.

The first reading from the First Book of Kings is a very dramatic example of how we can encounter God in the simplest occasions. Sometimes we start looking in the wrong places and God can surprise us.

In one of the great stories of the Old Testament, Elijah had a victory over the prophets of Baal in a fire contest (1Kings 18:17-40) and Jezebel the Queen threatens his life. So Elijah flees to the desert, where an angel tells him to journey on to Horeb (Mt Sinai). There he takes shelter in a cave and when God asks him why he has come, Elijah filled with self-pity, pours out his woe. There is no point in going on, he mourns; all Israel but he, Elijah, has abandoned God.

God tells him to stand outside the cave to experience his presence. First he feels a powerful wind, then he feels an earthquake, then he sees fire, but God is not in them. Remember in the Old Testament these "special effects" are associated with the Divine Presence. Here however, God's self-revelation is not in anything that dramatic. At last a gentle breeze or a "tiny whispering sound" speaks to Elijah of the presence of God. Elijah learns this lesson and hides his face in shame at his own disbelief.

The story of Jesus walking on the water is another story so important it is mentioned in 3 of the gospels. This week we hear Matthew's version of the event (also MK 6:45-52 and JN 6: 1-14). Jesus has just fed the five thousand and he made the disciples get into a boat to precede him to the other side. He himself went up on the mountain to pray. In the dead of night, the boat was far from shore and was being tossed about. He then was seen coming toward them walking on the water. Peter as usual spoke up, got out of the boat but started to sink because he was unsure, frightened. In each of the three gospel accounts we see some similarities and differences. Each evangelist relates what Jesus said to them: "It is I. Do not be afraid." Jesus words 'it is I" is literally "I am" in the Greek. This phrasing has strong overtones of divinity, echoing the name for Yahweh found in Isaiah. Jesus IS the divine presence; the disciples need not have fear.

This well known story of Jesus walking on the water and quieting the storm for the disciples is much more than a miraculous event. As followers of Christ we will often find ourselves in stormy waters, both in the world and within ourselves. Whether we see the disciple's boat as symbolizing the Church or our own lives, we can relate to Matthew's image: a tiny boat, big waves, roaring wind, disciples left alone through the night. Can we respond to Jesus' words, "take courage, It is I, do not be afraid"? As followers of Christ, we will often find ourselves in stormy waters. It is then that we must trust in Christ, for he will be with us and will still our storms. Our prayer today can be for the vision to see and hear God in our lives, outside this sacred space…on the lake…in a cave….in the dark of night….in the middle of a storm.

Sponsor Guidelines for Baptism & Confirmation

Church law requires that Baptism and Confirmation sponsors themselves frequent the sacraments regularly.

When someone who does not meet that requirement is designated as a sponsor, it is always an unpleasant (and frequently painful) experience for the priest, the parents of the child, and most especially for the person designated.

The reason a sponsor must be a practicing Catholic is that a sponsor is expected to pay special attention to the efforts of the person who is being baptized or confirmed to live a Christian life in keeping with the teachings of the Catholic Church. In the case of Baptism, sponsors are also expected to assist the parents of the child in their Christian duty as parents, by offering them support through good example, encouragement and prayer.

A sponsor should be a registered parishioner of IHM for at least 6 months. The person should also have received all the Sacraments of Initiation: Baptism, Eucharist, Confirmation. The Sponsor must be at least 16 years of age. The Sponsor should also participate at Mass each Sunday. If married, the sponsor must also be in a valid Sacramental marriage.

By issuing a Sponsor Certificate, a priest assures members of the faithful that a person is a Catholic in good standing who is eligible to serve as a sponsor for Baptism and/or Confirmation.
Please contact the Rectory during regular business hours to inquire about Sponsor Certificates.
