RAISING CHILDREN OF LIGHT

Looking for a great story to dive into this season?

Pick up a copy in the vestibule of Raising Children of Light: A Parent Guide for Pro-life Formation, or find the digital version at www.toughtopics.life, for recommended stories for all ages, toddler to adult. You'll find familiar titles such as Little Britches plus titles by Catholic authors Hilda Van Stockum, Regina Doman, and more.

PADRE'S CORNER

How much does liberty cost? At times, we can take it for granted. Why don't more people speak (and act) against ideologies that undermine Christian marriage and family, role of parents, God-given gender, peace between races, cancel culture, etc.? Perhaps, it is just basic fear. It would be well for us to consider what the 56 signers of the Declaration of Independence endured. Without them, George Washington, and many others like them, does our country exist?

Five signers were captured by the British and brutally tortured as traitors.
Nine fought in the War for Independence and died from wounds or from hardships they suffered.
Two lost their sons in the Continental Army.
Another two had sons captured.
At least a dozen of the fifty-six had their homes pillaged and burned.
Seventeen Signers lost everything they owned.
John Hancock, President of the Continental Congress, lost his two-month-old daughter due to complications stemming from fleeing the British Army.
Richard Stockton, a New Jersey State Supreme Court Justice, died after British imprisonment. His surviving family had to live the remainder of their lives off charity.
Thomas McKean moved his family almost constantly. He kept his family in hiding.
Thomas Nelson, Jr. urged General George Washington to open fire on his own home at the Battle of Yorktown. Nelson died bankrupt.
Francis Lewis' wife died after British imprisonment and other hardships from the war.
"Honest John" Hart was left with 13 children, two of whom were minors, after his wife died. For a time, British troops invaded his farm causing him to flee and hide.

The Signers of the Declaration of Independence all pledged:
"For the support of this declaration, with a firm reliance on the protection of the Divine Providence, we mutually pledge to each other, our lives, our fortunes, and our sacred honor."
Would that all Americans could/would say the same?!

God bless,
FRVW

Parish Yard Sale thanks you!

Thanks to everyone for another successful Yard Sale. This was a record-setting year, nearing $40K in sales which will go directly to parish operations. We thank the hundreds of people who donated their treasures. We thank the hundred-plus volunteers who working before the sale who sorted, organized, cleaned, displayed and priced all the items. We thank the volunteers during the sale who helped customers, totaled purchases, packed, and carried items. We thank the hundreds of people who shopped and purchased. We thank the gleaners from local charities and the clean-up crew who packed up the leftovers so they could move on to their next worthwhile sale venue. And, we offer special thanks to those who kept the volunteers fed and hydrated, helping to build parish community spirit as we worked through the week.

Paraphrasing Ecclesiastes: “There is a time for Spring cleaning, a time to downsize, a time to donate, and still a time to buy. A time to gather treasures, a time to pass treasures along…” Some members of our parish are downsizing while our younger parishioners have growing needs. The Yard Sale was able to provide special gifts for the younger members of our parish including a vessel to be used with baptisms at the historic church. The Catechesis of the Good Shepherd gathered items including furniture, curtains, religious art, trays/baskets, and candle holders to set up a new atrium for 6-9 year-olds. The Mothers Group received a large collection of toys and youth-sized chairs. Youth Ministry received large, rolling coolers and a couple of wagons that will be used to transport recreation gear to the fields.

Would you like to get involved with next year’s sale? There are plenty of opportunities! We need a new lead for the Toys area as our long-time lead will be stepping back. As the sale grows, we need someone to manage advertising and public relations. We also need someone to manage after-sale distribution. If you would like a role, big or small, there is a place for you! Mark your calendars. The sale will be June 11-13, 2027.

For more information, please contact Kristin Merrigan, email: smos.yardsale@gmail.com, phone or text: 571-405-0597.

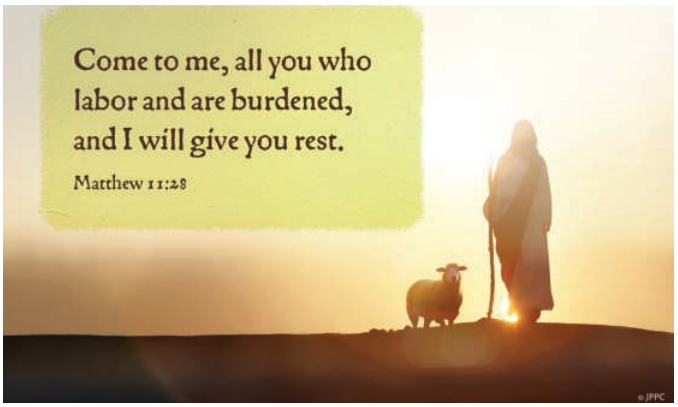
Patricians Meeting

Do you worry too much? Do you struggle with unbelief? Do you turn things over to God and then take them back? Have you heard of the Surrender Novena? Come and join the Legion of Mary at the Patricians meeting on Monday, July 6th, 7:00-8:30 pm, in Farrell Hall. The discussion will center on Servant of God Don Dolindo Ruotolo, a contemporary and friend of Saint Padre Pio, surrendering worries and problems to Our Lord, and increasing trust in God's providence. Light refreshments will be provided. For more information, email 09legionofmary15@gmail.com.



"I Will Give You Rest"

Today Jesus tells us, "Come to Me, all you who labour and are burdened and I will give you rest." God understands that we get tired and worn out. He wants us to come to Him when we need to rest. He refreshes our souls and gives us the energy and strength to carry on.

Do you ever feel like quitting when a job gets hard? Maybe you get tired of school or helping your Mom or Dad. When you feel like giving up it's time to start praying! Your work might seem easier when you pray, but even if it still seems hard you will be happier knowing that you are doing it for God.

Jesus tells us to take His yoke on our shoulders. A yoke is a sort of bar that is used to help carry heavy things. Jesus is saying that we should do His work. For some people that means preaching like He did, or healing the sick, or being a priest, but for most people it means just doing everything we have to do out of love for God.

Answer to maze on front: You will find rest.
Answer to word-find: He is compassionate.

Find the words from today's Psalm that are in CAPITALS. Use the letters that are left over to fill in the blanks:

What is one of the things this Psalm tells us about God?

__ __ ____________.

I will EXTOL you, O my GOD and King,
and I will bless your NAME forever and ever.
Every day will I bless YOU,
and I will PRAISE your name FOREVER and ever.

The Lord is GRACIOUS and MERCIFUL,
SLOW to ANGER and of great KINDNESS.
The Lord is GOOD to all and compassionate toward all his works.

Let all your works give you THANKS, O Lord,
and let your faithful ones BLESS you.
Let them discourse of the GLORY of your KINGDOM and SPEAK of your MIGHT.

The Lord is FAITHFUL in all his WORDS and holy in all his WORKS.
The LORD lifts up all who are FALLING and RAISES up the bowed down.

Upper Room Theatre Presents Fiddler on the Roof

Experience one of Broadway's most beloved musicals—live on the award-winning Upper Room Theatre stage in the All Saints Performing Arts Center (9310 Stonewall Rd., Manassas) this July 21-26, 2026.

Fiddler on the Roof tells the story of Tevye, a milkman in the village of Anatevka, who must balance ancient traditions with his daughters' modern dreams as their world changes around them. This Tony Award-winning musical has touched hearts for over 60 years with unforgettable songs like "Tradition," "Matchmaker," and "If I Were a Rich Man."

Upper Room Theatre's milestone 25th anniversary production features stunning period costumes and sets, dynamic choreography, a professional live orchestra, and professional theater veteran Jim Lawson bringing decades of stage experience to the role of Tevye. Visit UpperRoomTickets.com to secure your reserved seats for this Broadway masterpiece!
