Reflection—Father John Maria

Our readings for the 19th Sunday in Ordinary Time speak to us of the Presence of God in our midst. He is near to us, most especially in the times of fear when we seem unable to find Him.

In the reading from First Kings, the prophet Elijah was desperate and in grave danger, as the idolatrous king and queen had threatened his life. He sought the presence of God. There were strong winds, an earthquake and a fire. Beyond the clamor, Elijah heard the voice of God in a tiny whispering sound -- "a still small voice."

In our Gospel, Jesus had withdrawn to the mountain to pray. The disciples went out to sea, and found themselves tossed about by the waves. He came to them, walking on the water. And yet, even this filled them with terror.

The Lord remains near to us in our trials. Our lives are filled with noise that can drown out His voice. We expect to find Him amidst fireworks, but He desires instead to speak quietly to our hearts. All too often, we drift away from the Lord and find ourselves tossed about by waves. Jesus calls out to us cling to Him and rise above the waves, as Peter did at first. But like Peter, we focus instead on the winds and the waves, and we take our eyes off Jesus.

This week, follow the example of Jesus. Find solitude and silence to pray and listen for the Lord's voice. Keep your eyes fixed on Jesus, who calls to each of us: "It is I, do not be afraid!"

THE LORD CALLS EACH AND EVERY SOUL TO KNOW HIS LOVE AND MERCY. Each of us is called to strive to know

Him in the fullness of Truth, and not to settle for partial truths, passing fads or imitations that can never satisfy the longing of our hearts.

He founded His Church upon the Rock of Peter to teach with His authority. He sent the apostles forth to baptize in the Name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. He entrusted these truths & these graces to the Catholic Church.

Do you have a friend or loved one open to hearing this call of Christ, and to being received into the Catholic Church? Might YOU be that someone who has been a friend of St. Mary's parish, but have hesitated to take the step toward becoming Catholic?

Jesus is still calling! St. Mary's parish will host an Information Night in September (date t.b.a.) to discuss the call of Jesus, and to explain the process beginning this Fall. There is no pressure or obligation to commit immediately.

The Order of Christian Initiation for Adults (OCIA) is a prayer and study journey, culminating in union with Christ at Easter 2027.

For more info, no need to wait 'til Sept! Contact Fr. John Maria at 610-683-7443. We'd love for you to join us!

REFLECTION… by Rev. Leonard N. Peterson

If time travel were possible, I would enjoy a relaxed conversation with St. Peter about his past fears, especially his fear of drowning. My own fear of the same happened many years ago when I was a boy on a lakeside summer vacation with my family. I was wading carefree in the cool water when suddenly the soft ground beneath me disappeared, and I started to sink. My arms flailing about happily caught the lifeguard's attention, and I soon felt the power of his strong arms around me as he carried me to shore. My fear of deep water born that day has been with me ever since. This despite several failed efforts to learn how to swim.

In our gospel scene today, we see wonderfully impetuous St. Peter leap from the storm-tossed boat when he heard his Lord invite him to join him by simply saying "Come!" But it wasn't an easy ocean walk. The big fisherman felt small as he started to sink. His one prayer became: "Lord, save me!" Afterward, Jesus had to ask our first pope: "Why did you begin to have doubts, O man of little faith?"

Jesus had always insisted that people should look at a situation in its entirety before they acted (Matthew 16:24-25). He was always completely honest with people, as He still is with us. He urged any who would follow Him to see the difficulties of doing so before they joined Him on "the Way." A thread runs through Christian history of people's failure to count the cost of a decision and not act on impulse or emotion. Dare I cite Judas as an example?

So, it is well to have our own emotions in check when we are considering doing something "for Jesus' sake." Prudence is a virtue. It is not so much a harness on our generosity as it is a cautionary blinking yellow light on our internal switchboard. The rent money, after all, has a built-in purpose.

Like all of us, St. Peter and the chosen Eleven had to learn the truths of the Lord the hard way. Experience is a hard teacher because first you get the test and then the lesson. So, it is wise to pay attention to life lessons from Jesus and the Holy Spirit.

At the Milan Cathedral in Italy there are three inscriptions over the respective doorways. Over the right-hand door there is this motto: "All that pleases is but for a moment." Over the left-hand door the words are: "All that troubles is but for a moment." But over the central door there is a simple sentence: "Nothing is important save that which is eternal."

God love you and give you prudence.

"To be on earth the heart of God."
As Missionaries of the Sacred Heart, we work to make God's Love known wherever and whenever it is needed most, empowering, educating, and inspiring hope in poverty-stricken communities across the world.

The Missionaries of the Sacred Heart is an international congregation of religious priests and brothers who reach out to those who are poor-materially, emotionally, or spiritually-to bring God's compassionate and tender love to all. "May the Sacred Heart of Jesus be loved everywhere" is our motto. It was coined by Father Jules Chevalier, MSC who founded our society in France in 1854. Their concern was global, but they began with efforts to retore the vitality of the faith in rural France. On September 1, 1881, the first missionaries left for Papua New Guinea, the fulfilment of a dream that Fr. Chevalier already had as a seminarian.

The Missionaries of the Sacred Heart minister in more than 50 countries worldwide, with over 1,700 MSCs carrying on the legacy of our founder, Fr. Jules Chevalier. Since that time, we have been committed to bring God's love, revealed in Jesus, wherever we are sent.

You can find us ministering in a variety of ways, from healing the hearts of those who struggle at home in the United States to building schools and communities in the jungles of Papua New Guinea. From food parcels for the hungry and foster care for AIDS orphans, to medical and dental clinics and drop-in centers for people seeking work-the compassion and support given freely by our mission friends show clearly in everything we do.

The MSC continue to support the seminarians of our mission in Bogota, Columbia. We presently have 8 men in formation who need our support.

Our outreach programs bring hope to communities in need all over the world-all facing challenges that are often greatly different, but always equally powerful. From pastoral care of riverside communities in the Amazon, to the provision of something as simple and essential as a nutritious meal for a hungry child in Brazil, our Sacred Heart family are working across the globe to help those who need it most.

Aug 22/23 welcome Mission Co-Op priest Fr. Jean Marie Ndour, MSC and
