Bless the sick and suffering of our Parish
All praise and glory is yours, Lord our God, for you have called us to serve you in love. Bless the people of our parish so that they may bear this illness in union with your Son's obedient suffering. Restore them to health, and lead them to glory. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Is Jesus Christ inviting you to something more?

Deep within every human heart is a longing for truth, purpose, hope, and lasting peace. That longing is not an accident. It is God's invitation to know Him.

Whether you've been attending Mass for years, have never been baptized, belong to another Christian tradition, or are simply wondering what the Catholic faith is really about, we invite you to begin a journey of discovering the person of Jesus Christ.

Our 2026-2027 Order of Christian Initiation of Adults (OCIA) is more than a class. It is an opportunity to encounter Christ, explore the Catholic faith, and discover how His love can transform your life.

This journey may be for you if you:

1. Have never been baptized and are feeling drawn to the Catholic Church.
2. Were baptized in another Christian tradition and desire full communion with the Catholic Church.
3. Are a baptized Catholic who has not yet received First Communion or Confirmation.
4. Simply have questions about God, faith, or the Catholic Church and are looking for a welcoming place to explore them.

You do not need to have all the answers. You do not need to know the Bible or understand Catholic teaching before you come. Bring your questions, your doubts, your hopes, and your story. Together, we'll explore Scripture, prayer, the Sacraments, and the teachings of the Church, all while growing in a personal relationship with Jesus Christ.

Whether your journey leads to Baptism, full communion with the Church, completing your Sacraments, or simply taking a first step toward God, you will find a community ready to walk with you.

Classes begin: August 27th
Location: Room 7, St. Michael's School
Time: 7:00 PM

There is no pressure and no obligation. Just an open invitation from Christ to come and see.

" Come and see." (John 1:39)

To learn more or register, contact Deacon McGovern at 215-945-1166.

Come as you are. Christ is waiting. Perhaps this is the moment He has been preparing for all along.

Our Lady, Queen of the Knights, bless all the activities of our Order.
Keep us true to our pledge, to extend the kingship of thy divine son on earth.

"O my God, I am heartily sorry for my sins, because I dread the loss of heaven and the pains of hell. But most of all because they have offended Thee, my God, who art all good and deserving of all my love. I firmly resolve, with the help of Thy grace, to confess my sins; do penance; and avoid the near occasions of sin. Amen."

Reflection by Rev. Leonard N. Peterson

If time travel were possible, I would enjoy a relaxed conversation with St. Peter about his past fears, especially his fear of drowning. My own fear of the same happened many years ago when I was a boy on a lakeside summer vacation with my family. I was wading carefree in the cool water when suddenly the soft ground beneath me disappeared, and I started to sink. My arms flailing about happily caught the lifeguard's attention, and I soon felt the power of his strong arms around me as he carried me to shore. My fear of deep water born that day has been with me ever since. This despite several failed efforts to learn how to swim.

In our gospel scene today, we see wonderfully impetuous St. Peter leap from the storm-tossed boat when he heard his Lord invite him to join him by simply saying "Come!" But it wasn't an easy ocean walk. The big fisherman felt small as he started to sink. His one prayer became: "Lord, save me!" Afterward,
Jesus had to ask our first pope: "Why did you begin to have doubts, O man of little faith?"

Jesus had always insisted that people should look at a situation in its entirety before they acted (Matthew 16:24-25). He was always completely honest with people, as He still is with us. He urged any who would follow Him to see the difficulties of doing so before they joined Him on "the Way." A thread runs through Christian history of people's failure to count the cost of a decision and not act on impulse or emotion. Dare I cite Judas as an example?

So, it is well to have our own emotions in check when we are considering doing something "for Jesus' sake." Prudence is a virtue. It is not so much a harness on our generosity as it is a cautionary blinking yellow light on our internal switchboard. The rent money, after all, has a built-in purpose.

Like all of us, St. Peter and the chosen Eleven had to learn the truths of the Lord the hard way. Experience is a hard teacher because first you get the test and then the lesson. So, it is wise to pay attention to life lessons from Jesus and the Holy Spirit.

At the Milan Cathedral in Italy there are three inscriptions over the respective doorways. Over the right-hand door there is this motto: "All that pleases is but for a moment." Over the left-hand door the words are: "All that troubles is but for a moment." But over the central door there is a simple sentence: "Nothing is important save that which is eternal."

God love you and give you prudence.

Jerusalem Carvings

Dear bothers and sisters,

The weekend of August 22nd and 23rd the group from the Holy Land will have a display of beautiful religious handmade olive wood carvings, from Bethlehem in the Holy Land. The Christians of the Holy Land have been suffering and continue living in hard economical situations. Many of them have fled the Holy Land which decreased their population from 37% to 5%. Our mission is to help support these families by selling their religious carvings, which is a major source to their income to help them work and live in dignity in the Holy Land. Your support through purchasing these items, 200 families will be helped, also it will support peace in the middle east.

Olivewood carvings are a part of a tradition handed down from generations. Please stop at their table and purchase a nice gift from the little town in Bethlehem.

These beautiful wood carvings will be displayed in the back of the church on August 22nd and 23rd.

Reading I: 1 Kings 19: 9a, 11-13a
Elijah follows in Moses' footsteps, even to the point of hearing "the still small voice" of God that compels him to hide his face in his mantle.
Reading II: Romans 9: 1-5
Paul pleads innocence of any indifference toward Israel. He even wishes for his own death if that would save Israel. He then lists Israel's covenant blessings.
The Gospel: Matthew 14: 22-33
The Apostles had been fighting the storm all night when Jesus appears walking on the water, and claims to be "I am," the divine name from Exodus. The others in the boat worship Jesus.

PRAYER FOR FALLEN AWAY CATHOLICS

O Good Shepherd, You never cease to seek out the lost, to call home the stray, comfort the frightened, and to bind up the wounded. I ask you to bring all our fallen away brothers and sisters back to the practice of the Faith, and to remove all obstacles that present them from receiving your abundant mercy, which flows sacramentally through the heart of the Church. Make Your Power known to them today in every situation.
Through the intercession of Mary, Mother of God, their Guardian Angels, their patron Saints and the ever-prayerful Saint Monica, may you pardon their sins and unshackle them from what ever hinders their freedom to come Home. For you O Good Shepherd, have loved us to the end offered yourself to the Father for the salvation of all. AMEN.
