Catholic Devotion for November
The Holy Souls

In the month of November we pray for those who have gone before us, marked with the sign of faith.

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May they rest in peace. Amen.

Sunday Gospel
At a Glance (Mt 5:1-12a)

Let us Pray the Offertory
All Saints Day

May these offerings we bring in honor of all the saints be pleasing to you, O Lord,
and grant that, just as we believe the saints
to be already assured of immortality,
so we may experience their concern for our salvation.
Through Christ our Lord.

United by a Love Stronger than Death

Fr. Mike Schmitz is known the world over for his "Bible in a Year" podcast, which was at one time the most popular podcast on the internet. Imagine having him on speed-dial, knowing that he was willing to answer your call whenever you needed his help. St. Anthony of Padua was the Fr. Mike Schmitz of his day, known across Europe for his preaching. And yet, whenever we lose or misplace something, be it our car keys, a bill that needs to be paid, or the TV remote, he is always willing to assist us with his prayers.

It is so easy to take the love of the Saints for granted. On All Saints Day, we pause to give thanks to God for the relationship that unites us not only to him, but to all of those who belong to him, to whom we are united by a love that is stronger than death. We feel this in a special way for those with whom we had a relationship during life. But it is also true for those we have never met in this life, but who nonetheless show us "concern for our salvation."

Because the Saints have been perfected in their love of God, they are perfected in their love of neighbor. Because they love God, they love those whom God has created in his image and likeness, for whom he offered up his life on the Cross. Though they "are already assured of immortality," they desire us to be where they are, to share in the eternal love of the Blessed Trinity, a love that is stronger than death itself. ~ Fr. McF

Saint of the Week
St. Charles Borromeo – November 4

Charles was named a Cardinal by his uncle, Pope Pius IV. Instead of using his position to enrich himself, he tirelessly guided the Church through the Reformation, helping to conclude the Council of Trent and putting its reforms into practice as Archbishop of Milan.

St. Charles Borromeo, pray for us!
